KARL DALHOUSE MEMORIAL INVITATIONAL SWIM MEET.

The 'Y' Speedos Swim Club convincingly won the 12th renewal of the Karl Dalhouse Memorial Swim Meet held at the National Stadium Pool from February 2-4, 2007.

The Speedos Team amassed 1309 points to defeat the defending Champions, Tornadoes Swim Club who finished on 991points. In 3rd position was Blue Seals Swim Club with 531 points, followed closely by the Stingray Swim Club of Grand Cayman on 517 points.

A total of Nine (9) Clubs participated in what was an exciting event. Two (2) Meet Records were broken; Sidrell Williams in the Boys 10 and Under Age Group set a new mark of 2:43.50 seconds in the 200m Freestyle, shaving over 3 seconds off the existing Record. In the Girls 11-12 Age Group, Blue Seals Swim Club Medley Relay "A" Team, clocked 2:26.83 to better the old Record of 2: 28.22.

The Masters Trophy was shared by Three (3) Teams, namely, 'Y' Speedos, Tornadoes and Marlins.
