

SPEEDOS CHAMPION SERIES SOUTHERN ZONE Results for Friday March 19, 2010

Two Jamaicans were in action at the Speedos Champion Series Southern Zone Sectional Championship being held at the Fort Lauderdale Aquatic Complex.

In the Woman's 100 M Breaststroke, Victoria Ho finished a respectable 46th when she timed 1:23.26. Lindsay McKnight (Unattached) proved to be too fast for the field when she swam 1:11.73 to take the Gold ahead of 105 other swimmers.

Two events later, fifteen year old Alexia Royal-Eatmon swam 1:09.80 to finish 68th in the Women's 100 M Butterfly. The event, which had 130 participants, was won by Ana Anaya (Metro Aquatics) who swam a blistering 1:02.10.

Both girls are using this meet to warm up for the CARIFTA Swimming Championships which will be held at the National Stadium Pool, April 3-6, 2010.
