PRESS RELEASE

Youth Olympics Swim Hopefuls off to Training Camp and Swim Meet

Three (3) members of the National Swim Squad – Steven Moodie, Alexia Royal-Eatmon and Dominic Walter left the island yesterday (13 January 2010), to participate in a training camp with the Davie Nadadores Swim Club in Plantation, Florida. Two (2) other National Squad members - Brittany Kenny and Brian Forte, will join them on Friday, 15 January 2010 for training, ahead of their participation in the Nova Southern University Davie Nadadores Senior Invitational Swim Meet on Saturday, 16 January 2010 at the Nova Southern University Aquatic Complex. The swimmers form part of seven (7) swimmers who are attempting to qualify for the 2010 Youth Olympics. The other two (2) being Victoria Ho, who will compete for her club, Lake Lytal Lightning, at the meet and Kendese Nangle, who will compete for her school, Peddie, at a meet in New Jersey. The camp participants are being sponsored by the Olympic Solidarity programme through the Jamaica Olympic Association (JOA).

On Friday, 15 January 2010, National Squad members Timothy Wynter, Antoine Young, Priscilla McClure, Stefani Webley, Shaun James, Kevaghn Campbell and Ivana Chang, will leave the island to participate in the Davie Nadadores Meet as well. They will be using this meet to assist in their preparation for the upcoming CARIFTA Swimming Championships to be held in Jamaica in April.
