Getting Jamaica Swimming

Welcome to the March update with news on the National Learn to Swim Programme

National Stadium Pool 2010

Opening Ceremony Carifta 2010

Stadium re-opens with a Bang! - Carifta

After months of renovation & refurbishing, the National Stadium Pool was re-opened in fine style. ASAJ hosted the 25th staging of the Carifta games. Our Jamaican swimmers finished a credible 5th place overall finish.

HRD...Human Resource Development

Mr. Simroy Ashley & his team from the Rockfort Heart Vocational Training Centre came together & presented an exciting workshop on Emotional Intelligence (E.Q.) with the SwimJamaica staff.

Dr. Brad McRae was back with us, & shared his expertise with the leadership team as they planned & charted the course for the future.

Congrats!

This term saw five members of staff stepping up in ranks to become SwimJamaica 'Instructors'. They are Dianne, Errol, Jason, Kenya & Nemardo. Congrats to you guys.

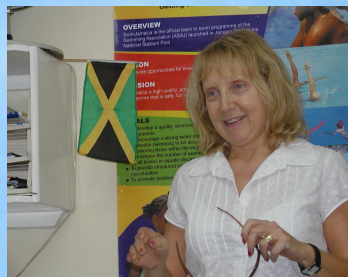

Can you swim 50m? Or are you a certified lifeguard? If yes, call the SwimJamaica office & find out how you can become a SwimJamaica Instructor.

Departure & Arrival

SwimJamaica says farewell to Mrs. Sue Robinson who returns to her homeland England after five years in Jamaica. Sue has helped us tremendously over the years & we will miss her dearly.

Cath & Pete (Founders of SwimJamaica) are beaming with joy as they celebrate the arrival of their son 'Adam Luke Moore'. The bouncing bundle of joy weighed in at 10lbs 3ozs on the 23rd of April.

SwimJamaica is endorsed by the

- ♦ Ministry of Education & Youth ♦ Ministry of Health
- ♦ Jamaica Olympic Association ♦ Early Childhood Commission
- ♦ Mayor of Kingston & St. Andrew
