CARIBBEAN ISLANDS SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS 2014

After two days of competing in the Caribbean Islands Swimming Championships, CISC, taking place in Barbados, Jamaica has one (1) gold, three (3) silver and five (5) bronze medals and forty-three (43) points. The lone gold medal so far came through Sidrell Williams swimming in the 15-17 boys 100m butterfly, who completed the race in 57.68 secs.

Two silver medals were won in the 18 and over girls category. First Alexia Royal-Eatmon finished the 100m backstroke in 1:07.97, then Trudiann Patrick medalled in the 100m butterfly, touching in 1:04.93. The other silver medal was won by Danielle Boothe in the 15-17 girls 200m individual medley (2:26.85) on day 1 of competition.

Danielle Boothe was back on day 2 with good performances to win two bronze medals. She established a new national age group record in the 15-17 girls 100m butterfly of 1:05.59. This erased the old mark of 1:06.07 set by Janelle Atkinson in 1998. She had earlier finished third in the 15-17 girls 100m backstroke, touching in 1:08.54.

Bronze medals also came from Timothy Wynter in the 15-17 boys 100m backstroke (1:01.07) and Leanne McMaster (2:55.28) in the 15-17 girls 200m breaststroke on day 2. The lone bronze medal on day 1 was won by Joseph Black in the 13-14 boys 50m freestyle when he finished in 25.22.

Other finalists on day 1 were Angara Sinclair (1:12.81 – 5^{th}) in the 13-14 girls 100m backstroke, Alexia Royal-Eatmon (1:21.18 – 4^{th}) in the 18 & over girls 100m breaststroke, Leanne McMaster (1:18.65 – 4^{th}) in the 15-17 girls 100m breaststroke, Trudiann Patrick (2:31.57 – 4^{th}) and Alexia Royal-Eatmon (2:38.24 – 7^{th}) in the 18 & over girls 200m individual medley, Annastazia Chin (2:34.10 – 5^{th}) in the 13-14 girls individual medley and Joseph Black (2:20.44 – 4^{th}) in the 13-14 boys individual medley.

Finalists in the 200m freestyle include Sidrell Williams (15-17 boys, $2:02.24-6^{th}$), Trudiann Patrick (18 & over girls, $2:18.86-5^{th}$), Annastazia Chin (13-14 girls, $2:15.11-7^{th}$) and Joseph Black (13-14 boys, $2:03.99-7^{th}$). Swimmers in the 100m butterfly finals were Annastazia Chin (13-14 girls, $1:11.44-6^{th}$), Joseph Black ($1:01.75-6^{th}$) and Jesse Marsh ($1:02.65-8^{th}$) in the 13-14 boys event, Timothy Wynter (15-17 boys, $1:01.49-8^{th}$) and Alexia Royal-Eatmon (18 & over girls, $1:09.13-6^{th}$). Other finalists on day 2 were Jordane Payne ($5:01.86-5^{th}$) in the 11-12 boys 400m freestyle and Xavier Philips ($2:43.88-8^{th}$) in the 15-17 boys 200m breaststroke.