Dylan Carter has finally fulfilled what he has promised with his since the meet started. He has won a historic silver medal for Trinidad and Tobago in the boy's 50 metre butterfly. He stopped the clock in 23.98 a mere .02 behind Australian winner Cameron Jones. The Caribbean has never before won a medal at these global championships. Scratching from the 100 metre freestyle semi-final that was minutes before the 50 butterfly final proved to wise. He has strengthened his credentials as the best overall age group Caribbean swimmer and arguably of all time.
