CCCAN SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS – DAY 1 PRELIMINARIES

Three of the six Jamaicans in action today at the CCCAN Championships now on in Puerto Rico advanced to the finals, all in medal winning positions. Kendese Nangle was the first in the water, finishing the 15-17 girls 50m backstroke in 31.45 for second seed into tonight's final. The others are both top seeded for the finals – Breanna Roman in the 15-17 girls 200m breaststroke, touching in 2:46.65 and Timothy Wynter in the 13-14 boys 100m backstroke, doing a personal best time of 59.96.

The other swimmers this morning were D'Agaene Clarke in the 11-12 girls 50m backstroke (personal best 36.00), Kevaughn Campbell in the 13-14 boys 200m breaststroke and Antoine Young in the 13-14 boys 100m backstroke.

The finals will be held later tonight.

June 27, 2011